KEY PROJECTS OR PRODUCTS

FMI recently became part of Spirit AeroSystems, one of the world's largest non-OEM designers and manufacturers of aerostructures for commercial and defense aircraft. FMI's advanced capabilities in high-temperature materials, combined with Spirit's expertise in industrializing next-generation aerostructures, creates a critical capability to industrialize state-of-the-art defense technologies. By combining our capabilities and expertise we provide the most affordable, highest performing products to our customers.
